

Orville Smith Home

After an absence of about six months, the greater part of that time a soldier in France, Orville Smith has returned home. Orville left here the 3d of October, 1917, and in a very short time he was in France. Notwithstanding much exposure, from weather as well as German fire, Orville escaped without a scratch, his most serious difficulty being an attack from the flu, which confined him to the hospital during the last days of the war. He is looking fine now, however, and ready to begin life over.

W. J. Doering Improving

The condition of W. J. Doering is all that can be expected. He is able to use his left arm and both legs, but is still unable to use his right arm, which still seems to be paralyzed. His brother Mike returned from his hideout at his home near Carrizozo, Texas, Tuesday night. It is thought that Will may be able to be up and about in the course of a few weeks, all of which is good news to his many friends in Carrizozo.

Will Sell Tractors

Stanley L. Squier, of the Western Garage, made a trip to El Paso this week to arrange for a shipment of Fordson tractors. He signed a contract for future shipments and the garage received one this week, which is sold to Fred Pfingsten—the first one to be purchased in Lincoln county. These tractors are said to be the most useful piece of machinery that can be purchased. They are equally valuable on road or farm and there are no end to the uses to which they may be put. They may be used quite advantageously in mining operations and the prospects are that many of these machines will be sold to our people when their general utility becomes known.

Who Am I?

I am the offspring of carelessness, indifference or deceit—the evidence of bad business methods. I am either deaf or blind to the rights of the other fellow, or merely forgetful. But, no matter the cause of my delinquency, I am costly. I cost my maker credit, and both time and money to his banker. I am a false representation, presenting an appearance of worth which has no existence in fact. I am a cheat and a liar. Sometimes I am a most disastrous effect of a perfectly innocent cause. I might say that is what I am most of the time. But there is never any excuse for me. I am one thing that exists without reason or excuse. I am the Overdraft.
